

We have decided to not have a weekly circular with respect to social distancing which will help reduce foot traffic in our stores.

This will also allow our front line team to rest from these extremely busy weeks and replenish our stores with product.

We will continue to offer in store promotions and everyday low prices.

Thank you for your cooperation during these difficult times.

SK Management Team

superkingmarkets.com